TESLA'S 'CARRY ME' PLATE

(formerly known as the DHP)

In response to the current world situation, a new decagonal (10-sided) double plate, which further strengthens immunity along with a high detoxification effect, has been born!

Like the Personal Pendant the Carry Me Plate quickly adapts to the owner's unique matrix. Once the adaption has occurred the plate cannot be used or shared with anyone else. One plate per person, including family members.

Keep the Tesla's Carry Me Plate in a pocket or tucked away inside a bra. It is recommended to carry this plate with you at all times if possible, during the day, at night place under your pillow or on the bedside table close to you.

The Carry Me Plate weighs about 40 grams and comes in an organza bag along with a silk drawstring pouch making the plate easy to use and wear. To keep your plate in good condition, leave in the silk bag, this will help prevent scratches etc.

Those who own this plate describe this plate as if they were describing a friend -"Gorgeous" "Friendly" "Calming" and love having their plate with them.

Note: A Tesla's Personal Pendant must be worn while using this product
